LOCAL ITEMS. WASHINGTON ITEMS. - The National Intelligencer says :- "We feel gratified in believing, and in being able to report our belief, that the quaking and apprehensions about the loss of a fruit crop for the present season were quite premature, at least in this region. We have seen enough within a day or two with our own eyes, of peach, pear, and cherry trees, to induce the strong belief that the newspapers and the public generally have cried out long before they were hurt, in this respect." While there is a great rush for office in the Interior as well as other departments, it is a noticeable fact that by the 1st of July the force will be reduced in the Pension and Census Bureaus to the extent of 80 or 100 clerks, as the legal necessity for their further employment will cease to exist.

On Friday last, the Rector of St. John's Church, in Washington, the Rev. Dr. Pyne, gave notice to the Vestry that he proposed to retire from the clerical duties of that parish at an early day. The announcement was received with regret by the congregat Mrs. Lincoln had a reception on Saturday, from 2 to 4, P. M., which was well attended. These receptions will be continued on each Saturday, at the same hours, until the commencement of the open-nir concerts by the Marine Band in the Capitol and President's grounds. Several prisoners in the Penitentiary, at Washington, made an attempt on Saturday night to escape. They were discovered, and all of them secured. "Chicken stealing" is carried on to a considerable extent. | Ditto, in the suburbs of Alexandria.

THE CHESAPEAKE AND OHIO CANAL has commenced business this year more favorably than in any previous season, and, it might be added, with good hope of continuance .-During the month just closed, the arrivals of boats at the tide-water collection office at Georgetown were two hundred and twentyfive. The tolls collected there last week amounted to a little more than $5,000, and during the month to between $10,000 and $11,000. It is usual to estimate one-third of the Georgetown tolls for the tolls collecand one-third in three years. The deferred pay- | ted at the offices above, which is to be added ments to bear interest, payable half yearly, and to to the foregoing. These receipts are unprecedented thus early in the season. Of course, the largest proportion of tonnage downward was Cumberland coal, but no less than 17,890 barrels of flour have been received during the month. Besides this heavy business in coal and flour, there have been considerable arrivals of corn, wheat, wood, limestone, and the usual articles of canal trade.-Nat. Int.

> THE ALEXANDRIA LIBRARY.-We learn with pleasure that arrangements are now being made, looking to the financial relief and resuscitation of that venerable and useful Institution, the Alexandria Library. Owing to the inundation of the 'Yellow Kiver' literature of the day, the more solid and useful reading matter to be found in the "Alexandria Library" has been almost entirely overlooked and neglected. We hope now for a higher appreciation of the claims of this Institution, and trust that our citizens will rally to its support.

BOGUS DESPATCHES. Last Wednesday night, in passing from Providence homeward, I missed the Newburyport train; and hearing the newsboys all shouting "Fort Sumter is vaccinated and blown up! extra Traveller-extra Journal," I invested two cents; but the "sell" was too obvious after I had read the single line which gave the important news. Now it is a consolation for me to think that I am not the the fine quilt work down to the dray, cart, and first individual thus "sold." Don't you remember, in the "Devil's Walk," by Southey. how Old Solferino was "done" by the Lon-

CAPITAL JOKE. - A military company in full uniform was called out a short time since, by the Sheriff of Worcester co., Md., to capture a pungy which was taking oysters against the law. The company, in a battean, proceeded to the conflict. The captain of the pungy went below and got out a stovepipe, mounting it cannon style over the bulwarks, and standing at one end with a big lump of charcoal lighted and sparkling .-The moment was critical, with every advantage on the side of the captain of the pungy, who straightened up, and at arms length prepared to apply the match. Simultaneously as he thrust the chunk of fire into the end Agent for Alexan Iria. of the stove-pipe, the military jumped overboard, and such a "sloshing about," and diving was never witnessed in the waters of Worcester. It is needless to add that, while the military were under the water, the captain of the pungy hoisted sail, and bid farewell to the waters of Marvland, and that, since this marvelous adventure, the military company aforesaid, for behaving so gallant-
